CANADIAN SKI PATROL SYSTEM—KAWARTHA ZONE

President's Notes...

Congratulations to all of our first year patrollers; most of you are now proudly wearing your "Yellow and Blue". Well done, you and your instructors. It has been a trying year weather wise. Completing your training speaks well of all concerned.

As I had mentioned in a previous article, when the season is not going well for owners and managers, we come under greater scrutiny by both the resorts and the public. There have been three incidents where we have walked a patient from a chalet to a treatment area with unsupported angular fractured wrists. Remember other than a "Load and Go", we assess, then treat, then transport. The result could be very bad if a patient fell on an already fractured wrist while under our care.

in advance our education team and the Lakeridge Patrol who are bringing this together. Good luck to all teams.

A reminder to all VP's of the meeting Thursday Night.

See you on the slopes rant, just off of Thickson Rd., south of Highway #2 in Whitby, just behind the Taco Bell on the west side of the road at 6:00 pm. Tickets will be for sale two hours before the draw at Melanie's so if you get a chance, drop by for a beverage and if you purchased a ticket, hopefully your name will be the one drawn for one of the jerseys. The first name out of the hat has their pick of jerseys and both jerseys will be given away in this draw.

Jessica Cassano, member of Kawartha Zone and the Big Brothers/Big Sister Organization wants to invite you all to come to WingFest 2012 in Support of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Oshawa/Whitby.

This year we have 4 restaurants competing for the title that the Crooked Uncle took last year. Come on out and support this wonderful cause. Food, dancing, drinks and guaranteed good times! I am hoping to get a table of 10 to represent Kawartha Zone! So find 9 other people you want to spend at least 3 hours with and come out!

If you are interested in coming out, fire me off a quick email and I'll have a ticket for you. Tickets this year are $25.00 and I promise you will be fed well! The event is Saturday, February 25th at the General W. Sikorski Hall (The Polish Hall) starting at 7:30 pm. (Taunton Rd. & East of Thornton)
